THE EURASIA MOTORSPORT STAIRCASE OF TALENT

2016 FORMULA MASTERS SERIES DRIVER GUIDE

Eurasia Motorsport – Staircase of Talent

Eurasia Motorsport not only offers the best possible training and education for a driver's first step out of karting but also allows the driver to develop and move up the motorsport ladder within the team.

We have been an integral part of the development of the careers of some of the World's best drivers, we can count an F1 Grand Prix winner, Le Mans 24H winner and many international championship winners at all levels of the sport.

After FMCS, if budget and talent allow, a driver can graduate to F3 with one of our associate teams on the next step to F1. However if budget makes F1 an impossible dream a driver can graduate to LMP racing with Eurasia. We currently run LMP2 and LMP3 cars in the European and Asian Le Mans Series and we will soon compete in the World Endurance Championship. We offer drivers a clear career path to the top of sportscar racing.

Success in FMCS also opens doors to GT racing, with VW offering supported drives to competitive FMCS drivers, in the Porsche Carrera Cup Asia, Audi LMS Cup and the Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia. Eurasia is also a successful championship winning GT team.

Read on to find out how you can follow in the footsteps of our illustrious graduates.
